Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the information from the hearing and in the indictment and the Pretrial Services Agency report establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant presents a danger to the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 39 year old citizen of Columbia who has resided in Spain for the last six years. He has no legal status in the United States. United States Immigration and Enforcement may file a detainer against him.
2. Defendant has prior misdemeanor convictions for being an immigrant without an immigrant visa and for giving false information to a federal officer.
3. Defendant is accused by indictment of conspiracy and possession with intent to distribute 5 kilograms or more of cocaine, charges each having a potential penalty of 10 years to life in prison. Defendant is also accused of two money laundering offenses each having a potential penalty of up to 20 years in prison.
4. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that he is a flight risk and a potential danger to the community.
5. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
